

Appearance vs Reality

In this second newsletter of our third year, we take you on a ride of the reality of the lives of our children. Our kids go through hardship, each and every day.

By supporting us, however, you help to develop them and their education, giving them a chance for a brighter future.

We are extremely grateful for your support!

The reality of Favela life for EduMais' kids

The happiness seen in so many of the children's photos, though real, can obscure the difficulties they face. Zac -our long-term volunteer wrote a must read blog about the reality of our kids.

Growing Confidence with Stilt Walking

From fear and insecurity to confidence in 30 minutes. Picking up the challenging. For some kids more than others. But they all gained (more) confidence, self-esteem.
